

Privacy Policy - RadialMenu

This Privacy Policy is intended to explain how RadialMenu application handles and protects the privacy of its users. We commit to not collect any personal information about the users and strive to ensure a safe and secure experience while using our application.

Information Collection and Use

RadialMenu application does not collect or store any personal identifiable information, location data, contact information, or any other user information. Our application also does not utilize any tracking technologies to track user behavior, browsing habits, or any other data.

Third-Party Services

RadialMenu application does not share user information with any third-party services.

Children's Privacy

RadialMenu application is intended for general users and we do not knowingly collect personal identifiable information from children under the age of 13. If parents or guardians discover that our application has interacted with children under the age of 13 and obtained their information under our control, please contact us immediately so we can take necessary actions to delete such information.

Security Measures

We take reasonable security measures to protect the information provided by the users. However, please be aware that no internet transmission or electronic storage method is 100% secure. While we strive to protect the security of user personal information, we cannot guarantee the absolute security of such information.

Changes and Revisions

We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Policy at any time. If there are any significant changes to the policy, we will provide notice within our application.

Thank you for using RadialMenu application. We value your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal information.
